HISTORY

The EL PASO ART ASSOCIATION (EPAA) was founded in 1949 by a small group of area artists dedicated to promoting excellence in the visual arts in El Paso and the surrounding area by means of art classes, exhibitions, lectures and workshops.

The EPAA is also dedicated to elevating art appreciation in the community by all means possible.

The EPAA is a non-profit, incorporated organization. It has grown to over 300 members representing all age groups and incomes, races, levels of education and artistic expression.

COMMUNICATION

The EPAA Newsletter is published electronically announcing upcoming events, projects, and promotion of various art activities. It is sent via email to those who have an email address.

The EPAA Yearbook and Directory is published annually featuring the members' roster, EPAA constitution, local advertisers who support the art programs, exhibits, art instructors and other pertinent information.

The EPAA Website:

ElPasoArtAssociation.com includes artists' biographies, slide shows, gallery exhibition dates and prospectuses and contact information that may be used by potential members, collectors and gallery directors.

Plus members can sign up for a personal website for a very reasonable fee.
